

NEWSFLASH...

We have a very exciting opportunity offered to Austin Dressage Unlimited members & guests who are attending the Klaus Balkenhol video series ADU Dinner & DVD Nights!

Roland Blum, of Niedernhausen, Germany, the filmmaker of this Balkenhol series, has asked Austin Dressage Unlimited if our members & friends would act as film critics for him. He has asked us to give him feedback on our impressions of these dressage instructional DVDs that he has created. Mr. Blum has provided us with a list of some questions, and we will have an evaluation form for the ADU DVD Night attendees to fill out that we will return to him. He has asked ADU to help him with suggestions to improve his future dressage educational film projects that he will be creating and producing.

Please join us for this April 18 ADU Dinner & DVD Night. This is quite an honor for Austin Dressage Unlimited!!!
