

Celebrating the establishment of the ADU Dressage Library!

Dinner & DVD Night

Sunday March 7, 2010 starting at 5 pm
Lucy Meyer's home, north-central Austin

The extremely wet and cold weather we've been having gives you the perfect excuse to stay indoors and further your Dressage education!

One way is to borrow a book from the newly established ADU Dressage Library. Another way is to join us for the return of our very popular ADU Dinner & DVD Nights!

From Foal to Grand Prix By Klaus Balkenhol

Klaus Balkenhol is the former chef d'équipe of the US dressage team, is a key figure of the international dressage world. His impressive record at the highest levels of world competition, includes two Olympic gold medals and an individual bronze, along with innumerable German, European, and World Cup wins.

As a trainer of riders and horses, Klaus follows the rules of classical riding and horsemanship. His credo is to do what is natural for the horse, using fairness in working with your equine partner. Responsible handling which fosters positive experiences are the basic requirements to producing a calm, reliable riding horse which is able to achieve its full potential. The basic rule is 'make demands on the horse, but never demand too much'. The result is a physically mature horse able to do what is asked and who has full trust in its rider.

Bring your questions and comments, and join in the lively, educational discussions. Meet, mingle, and munch.

The main course will be a selection of Lasagnas. Please bring a side dish, dessert, or drink to add to the feast.

Please RSVP by March 3rd to:

Lucy Meyer at 971-0358 or RoyalEquusFarm@aol.com
Let her know you are coming, and what side dish you plan to bring.
