

Palm Beach International Equestrian Center
Global Dressage Educational Event with 5* FEI Judge Gary Rockwell
January 27 - 28, 2018

Austin Dressage Unlimited (ADU) is organizing an educational trip to Florida to attend a CDI at the world acclaimed Palm Beach Equestrian Center in Wellington, Florida. Attendees will sit with 5* FEI Judge Gary Rockwell in a specially reserved section of the stadium. Gary will give us a live ongoing commentary about each ride as each is being performed throughout the 2 days. We also hope to organize a visit to a few of the barns in the Wellington area.

The fee for attending this 2 day Global Dressage educational event with Gary will be: $150 for the 2 days for ADU Members; $250 for the 2 days for non-ADU Members. Each person will be responsible for their own airfare, lodging, and transportation. We hope to have suggestions for you once we know how many people will be attending.

If interested in attending, please contact:

Carol Schmickrath 512-940-2841 or brookstonefarm@aol.com

There will be a limited number of spots available on a first come first served basis. A deposit will hold your spot. If you cannot attend, you will be responsible for finding a replacement.

This will be a very special educational experience! Reserve your spot right away!
