President of the Stallion Selection Committee for the KWPN

This seminar with Wim Ernes promises to give us top-of-the-World-class advice from the perspective of an International Judge, a National Team Coach, Trainer, Instructor, & Breeder. You won't want to miss it!

ADU is hosting this 6th annual major dressage educational seminar in charming historic Georgetown, TX - just a short drive from Austin, the "Live Music Capitol of the World." This 2 day program is approved by USDF for Continuing Education & USDF-University credit (#102503). Judges & L Grads/Candidates will expand their judging knowledge & skills with unique insights from Wim. The lecture will also be directed towards Trainers, Instructors, and Riders, who will learn what is expected at each level, and how to improve their performance & scores in dressage competition. We encourage everyone to get their registration in early to assure a spot & a packet with handouts. Hotel discounts are also available if reserved early. See ADU website for more details.

Online & hard copy Registration forms, & more detailed information about this Seminar are on the ADU website: www.AustinDressageUnlimited.org
